Silk

Petticoats.

Dainty Silk Petticoats with fluffy chiffon ruffles and flounces and plaitings of ribbons give to a handsome gown a touch of beauty that is in itself one of the most attractive features of an elaborate toilet. New and novel effects in ruffles, ruches and appliques distinguish the summer petticoat from the heavy winter styles.

We are showing a beautiful line of Silk Petticoats this season, which far excels anything heretofore shown in richness of designs, elaborate workmanship and moderation of prices. $7.50 to $25.00 each.

We offer the following lots of White Silk Petticoats at about a third less than regular prices. They are fresh goods, just from the makers, and are very desirable for drop-skirts for graduation and commencement gowns.

INQUEST OVER REMAINS OF AN UNKNOWN BOY.

Jury Unable to Secure Testimony as to Identity-General and Personal Items.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 3, 1904.

A coroner's jury summoned by Justice of the Peace J. O. N. Kirby of Fairfax county held an inquest this morning over the body of an unknown white boy which was washed up by the tide on the beach near New Alexandria yesterday afternoon There being no means at hand of identifying the remains, the jury returned a verdict stating that the dead person was a stranger and that he had come to his death by drowning in a manner unknown to the jury. Undertaker B. Wheatley of this city took the remains in charge. They will be interred this afternoon. The boy was apparently about fifteen years of age. He wore short trousers, but there was nothing about his clothing to indicate his identity. The body was in a bad state of decomposition.

Two Marriages Last Evening. Miss Edith M. Smith, daughter of Capt.
